

CITY OF VON ORMY
P.O. BOX 10, VON ORMY, TEXAS, 78073
www.vonormytexas.com | 210-857-6848

Press Release
November 18, 2008

RE: City of Von Ormy will hold inaugural City Council Meeting

Event. Wednesday, November 19, 2008, the City Council of the City of Von Ormy, the newest city in Texas, will be sworn in and hold its first ever City Council meeting. The Hon. Irene Rios, Bexar County Court 10, will swear in the first Mayor and City Council. The city was incorporated on May 31, 2008. The first municipal government election was held November 4, 2008. It will begin operating as an all-volunteer city.

The inaugural agenda for the new City includes many preliminary matters such as adopting Roberts Rules of Order; selecting a procedure for creating an agenda; picking a time and location for regular meetings, establishing the offices of City Clerk, City Attorney, and City Archaeologist; and holding a lottery to establish "Place" numbers for Aldermen.

The council meeting will be held in the Parish Hall of Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church at 13466 IH 35 S, Von Ormy, Texas beginning at 6:30 PM

The City of Von Ormy is 1.88 square miles in area, and lies along I-35 between Loop 1604 and the Medina River in Southwest Bexar County. The City has a population of over 1,300 persons. More information and meeting agenda are available at: www.vonormytexas.com

The City of Von Ormy City Council are:

Mayor	Art Martinez de Vara, Attorney
Alderman	Verna Hernandez
Alderman	Sammy Martinez
Alderman	Leonardo Ruiz
Alderman	J. M. Sweeney
Alderman	Alex Quintanilla